Piles Are Easily Cured.

Nature has provided a specific for piles. It is the active principle of the common buckeye. This principle, when extracted by a special process, and in combination with other remedies forms Taylor's Pile Ointment.

This ointment cures nothing but piles, but it cures all, bleeding and protruding piles every time. It makes operations needless, cures when operations fail. This is why physicians recommend it. Bottles, 50 cents. In special tubes for handy application, 75 cents. Can be sent by mail.

Sold by C. C. M. L. Drug Department.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Governor Wells Receives Inquiry About Orphan Girl.

Governor Wells yesterday received a letter asking for information about Alice Swearingen, an orphan, who was adopted from the Washington (D. C.) orphan asylum nine years ago by a lawyer whose name is White, and who once practiced in Salt Lake.

The writer of the letter was Vernon Swearingen, a sister of the last girl. She said that she did not know White's first name, but that she had heard he moved to a town about sixteen miles from Salt Lake some years ago. Any information will be thankfully received by the sister, whose address is 6 Pearl street, Augusta, Ga.

Estate of James Harlan.

Mount Pleasant, Ia., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln of Chicago has been appointed administratrix of the estate of her father, the late Senator James Harlan. The estate of the aged statesman was surprisingly small, amounting to less than $50,000. All of it will fall to Mrs. Lincoln, his only heir.

Decision in Bankruptcy Cases.

Milwaukee, Oct. 14.—A decision of great importance in bankruptcy cases has been handed down by Judge Jenkins in the United States circuit court of appeals. The court ruled that a judgment secured against an insolvent person within four months preceding the filing of bankruptcy is void, inasmuch as it is an apparent impossibility to determine to certainty the exact standing of creditors. It is stated the decision will result in a rush for other securities.

The second monthly meeting of the teachers of the city schools was held yesterday morning in the high school assembly room. Superintendent F. R. Cooper presiding. The superintendent spoke first upon the advisability of teachers taking up some professional work, such as the McMurtry's General Method, and in fact building the work to be discussed in an informal manner, and at the general meetings a syllabus of the matter treated would be presented by the superintendent and discussed still further. Mr. Cooper would not make such a course obligatory, but, should time permit, he stated that such reading would be very helpful.

The forthcoming meeting of the State Teachers' association was alluded to by Superintendent Cooper, who took the position that it is the duty of every teacher in Utah to attend and give such aid as is necessary to make the meeting a success.

Economy in the work of teaching formed the theme of a brief address by the superintendent, attention being made particularly to the work of the superintendent of the subject of the teacher's aspect of the subject to be reserved for some future time.

"All schoolrooms," said the speaker, "should be carefully and thoughtfully ventilated. When this is not done the pupil becomes restless and uneasy, and a waste of energy is the result."

In conducting classes the failure limit should be carefully observed, and daily programmes should be so arranged that the most difficult studies should be taught when the mental and physical vigor of the student is at the highest.

At 9 o'clock in the morning the child's play was highest. After 10 o'clock, when he is in a better condition for study. From that time until about 3 o'clock he is again in a better condition for study. Gradually lower during the remainder of the day, but in the evening he is again on the ascending scale.

After the address of the superintendent, Clerk Morton distributed warrants for monthly salaries.
